ARREST AFTER BODY FOUND

A MAN has been arrested in connection with the discovery of a body in Barking last month.

The 39-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of perverting the course of justice last Thursday and was taken to an east London police station. He has been released on bail pending further enquiries.

Police were called by paramedics after the body of a man in his early 20s was found in Cooke Street, Barking, at approximately 4.20am on Thursday, June 19.

A post-mortem has proved inconclusive and police are awaiting for the result of toxicology tests.

Officers are still trying to determine the identity of the man and trace his next of kin.

Supt Mike Hamer, of Barking and Dagenham Police, said: "I am appealing for anyone who was in the area of Cooke Street and may have seen anything unusual to speak to police.

Anyone with information about this incident should call Barking and Dagenham Police on 101.

Youngsters inspired by sport and competition at community games

HUNDREDS of children from Barking and Dagenham took part in the Community Games 2014.

More than 400 youngsters from schools across the borough joined hundreds of others competing against each other in a range of sports including fencing, rugby, athletics and hockey last Friday.

The sports, which were organised by local clubs from the east London area, were designed for all abilities to enjoy with just under half of all competitors at the event having a disability.

Barking and Dagenham Council leader Darren Rodwell also took part in the community games.

He said: "The community games are a great opportunity to bring together the borough's young people and for them to try out a range of different sports. There was lots of enthusiasm, and I was proud to see so many young people from the borough working together and having fun."

The community games were run in partnership with Barking and Dagenham Council and social enterprise SportInspired, with the support of local sports clubs, teachers and community groups.

Dr Peter Thomond, director and co-founder of SportInspired, said: "It's a delight to work with the community with these events helping to increase the activity levels, confidence and life skills of everyone involved. We can't wait to continue the growth and impact of our work in the local area."

The six primary schools that took part in the community games were Thames View, Dorothy Barley, Valence, Trinity, Grafton and William Bellamy.

The team from William Bellamy was named winner of the first of two competitions with Valence awarded a prize for team spirit, while Grafton team was crowned winners of the second competition and William Bellamy winner the team spirit award.

Arrests made in police operation

TWENTY-ONE arrests were made in Barking and Dagenham during a police operation last week.

The suspects were arrested for a range of offences including drug possession and handling stolen goods while three people were arrested on suspicion of carrying knives last Wednesday.

The operation involved more than 5,800 officers from all 32 London boroughs, roads and traffic police and specialist crime units including Territorial Support Group, Trident, and the Flying Squad.

Detective Inspector Lee Osborne, from Barking and Dagenham Police, said: "The borough is safe, but through operations like this we aim not only to maintain that safety, but to improve upon it."

In Barking and Dagenham, police and licensing officers from trading standards visited local mobile phone shops. They seized a number of phone chargers that did not meet British Safety Standards.

Two crime prevention stalls were also set up in Barking Town Centre and in the Eastbury Ward and police were on hand to offer advice to shoppers and residents about protecting themselves and their valuables.

Killer begins life sentence

A MAN who stabbed a pregnant woman to death in Ilford has been jailed for life.

Farooq Shah, 21, of Station Road, Forest Gate, was sentenced to serve a minimum of 29 years imprisonment for the murder of Mariana Popa in October 2013 at Woolwich Crown Court last Friday.

Shah, who was found guilty last month, was also jailed for six years to run concurrently for a knife-point robbery he committed less than an hour before murdering Mariana in Ilford Lane. Investigating officer, Detective Inspector Darren Richards, said: "Shah has never given any reason or expressed any remorse for killing Mariana. He's given no reason because there was no reason other than he had armed himself with a knife and was prepared to use it that night."

"First he threatened a vulnerable man for his phone, then he attacked Mariana, thinking they were alone."

The court heard that 24-year-old Mariana arrived in the UK only a few weeks before her murder.

Mariana, a Romanian mother of one young daughter, was a sex worker and had been spoken to by police three times and issued with a caution for soliciting on the night she died.

Officers were called in by paramedics shortly after midnight when Mariana was found with multiple stab wounds in Ilford Lane, near Loxford Lane on Tuesday, October 29.

MURDERER: Farooq Shah, and victim, below, Mariana Popa

Mariana was taken to an east London hospital where she died just before 2am. A post-mortem revealed that she died as a result of shock and haemorrhage and stab wounds to her chest. During their investigations into the case, detectives trawled through 400 hours of CCTV from cameras along the road and managed to find footage of the murder taking place.

The footage showed Ms Popa walking along with a man and his bicycle. The man, later identified as Shah, is seen to take a knife from a back pocket and stab Mariana twice in the chest. He then makes off towards Loxford Lane on his bike, while Ms Popa collapsed in a nearby shop doorway. Detectives were able to trace the attacker to an area around St Francis Way and during door-to-door enquiries found a bicycle matching the description of the one seen in the CCTV footage.

Shah was arrested at the flat and officers recovered a bag that matched one worn by the killer.

Police also recovered a Samsung Galaxy phone which was later identified as one Shah had taken after robbing a partially sighted man in his 50s at knife-point shortly before Mariana's murder.

Speaking after the case, Mr Richard added: "Shah has deprived a young daughter of her mother and a family of their loved one. I hope that the sentence will bring some sense of justice for them."

Police who died in the line of duty remembered at ceremony

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

CHINGFORD police officers who died in duty have been remembered at a memorial.

The commissioner of the Metropolitan Police Service, Bernard Hogan-Howe, led tributes at a memorial garden on Monday, 16 June, to hundreds of officers and staff who have lost their lives.

Four officers have died in Chingford unexpectedly while a sergeant from Chingford was murdered in Walthamstow in 2000.

The service was part of the centenary of the start of the First World War and RAF reservist and senior aircraftman, PC Martin Warnes, laid a wreath to pay tribute to officers who died during the conflict.

Commissioner Howe said: "Today is our thirteenth annual service of remembrance at the memorial here at the Peel Centre, where we remember the courage and bravery of all officers and staff who have given their lives in the line of duty."

"The Metropolitan Police Service has a proud history. I feel that pride every day, when I hear stories of officers and staff taking huge personal risks to protect the public. In upholding the office of constable and fulfilling the pledge they made on attestation, police officers will often run toward danger, not away from it. Sadly this means that there are occasions when our colleagues pay the ultimate price."

"It is important that each year we pay tribute to those who have died, and remember the sacrifice they have made. We will always be indebted to them for their service. We should not and will not forget them."

The first police officer killed in Chingford was WRC Thomas Jones, who was killed in a bomb explosion while cycling during an enemy air raid in 1939.

Five years later PC Walter Tralau died when his bicycle was in collision with a car during a black-out.

In 1983, PC Mark Simpkins was killed in a police car smash in Chingford while answering an emergency call to a bank alarm and the most recent death was in 2000 when PS John Laight died from a heart attack in the custody suite at Chingford Police Station.

The most prominent case was the murder of Sergeant Alan King, from Chingford, who was killed on November 29, 1991, by Nicholas Vernage.

Over a week, Vernage killed his girlfriend Lorna Bogle, stabbing her 21 times, Javid Iqbal, who disturbing him burgling his flat, and Sgt King, who confronted him before being stabbed repeatedly in the head, neck and chest.

The 41-year-old, who was married with four children, had been an officer since 1969.

Speaking of Sgt King, Chief Superintendent Alan Stainsby, said: "When you look at his career profile, it has the stamp of someone who always wanted to be a police officer. Here is a guy who could have turned his hand to anything. There is not a thing he would not have measured himself up against."

"The tragic circumstances of his death sum up the man. He saw something going on and got out of his car to deal with it without a thought for anything else."

The memorial monument was opened by the Queen in September 2001.

In the foyer of New Scotland Yard is the eternal flame and Book of Remembrance of Police Staff who lost their lives in both World Wars.

A list of names in the Book of Remembrance can be found at: www.met.police.uk/history/remembrance

Bank worker avoids prison

Details of wealthy customers accessed

A £500,000 bank fraudster has been ordered to do 90 hours unpaid work.

Le-Keisha Henry-Richards, 28, of High Road, Leytonstone, London, used her position at the Threadneedle Street branch of NatWest to access the confidential bank account details of high net worth customers.

The judge at the Old Bailey chose not to send her to prison and instead handed down a two-year suspended prison sentence on Monday.

The court heard how Henry-Richards gave information to a criminal gang, which used the details to take over the accounts, before applying for new credit cards. The gang then used the stolen cards to purchase high value goods and to make cash advances which totalled £501,033, between March and November 2011.

DCI Perry Stokes, Head said: "Henry-Richards abused her position of trust within the bank by stealing confidential customer information which ultimately resulted in the theft of over £500,000 from customer accounts. Today's sentencing sends a clear warning to others that may be tempted to tread this path, crime does not pay and we will bring you to justice."

Le-Keisha Henry-Richards, 28, sentenced to 90 hours voluntary work

The case was reported to police by RBS bank investigators after they identified fraudulent address changes on the accounts. Henry-Richards was convicted of fraud by abuse of position, and was also sentenced to 90 hours unpaid work requirement.

Theatre mourns passing of Patsy

TRIBUTE: James Maxwell, Patsy Byrne and Mary Savidge

THE Queen's Theatre joins in paying tribute to Blackadder star Patsy Byrne – who began her acting career in Hornchurch.

Ms Byrne, who was 80 when she passed away last week, is best-known as the comedy legend Nurse – dim-witted but loveable nursemaid to Queen Elizabeth I in the hugely popular television series Blackadder II.

She began her acting career in the 1950s at Queens and doubled up as stage manager.

As a member of the Queen's original repertory company, The Queen's Players, her acting credits include Tennessee Williams' A Streetcar Named Desire, Pauline and John Phillips' Mayor's Nest, George Farquhar's The Recruiting Officer, Thornton Wilder's Our Town and the pantomime Red Riding Hood in 1955.

The Queen's artistic director Bob Carlton previously directed Ms Byrne at the Belgrade theatre, Coventry, where she later went on to work.

He said: "Patsy was a lovely lady. She was a highly respected, extremely experienced actress who was very helpful to me as a young director and had lots of ideas.

"She also had a terrific sense of humour and would often have everyone in fits of giggles! She was a very warm human being and great at what she did. Her passing is so sad and a huge loss to both the acting community and her many fans."

Ms Byrne was also a member of the Royal Shakespeare Company and appeared in numerous other TV shows.

Her death follows one week after the death of fellow Blackadder actor Rik Mayall on June 9 who played Lord Flashheart.

BUZZING: Students with Shaun Dowell at the Lord of the Flies workshop

Lords of the dance

MALE dance and drama students at Havering College of Further and Higher Education could be heading for a whole new adventure in Matthew Bourne's Lord of the Flies production at Sadler's Wells.

Eleven students have taken part in a workshop which may result in dancing alongside professionals in a contemporary ballet re-telling

William Golding's classic story about a group of abandoned boys.

Lord of the Flies ambassador for London, freelance professional dancer Shaun Dowell, visited the Havering College Ardleigh Green Campus in Hornchurch, to search for dancers for the show which will take place this October.

First step on the career ladder

YOUNG people are getting on the career ladder thanks to several new local projects.

Brandon O'Reilly, 19, from Leytonstone, has been running a plant stall at Organiclea at Hawkwood Nursery in Chingford, in a placement for the Foodworks Programme.

The scheme, provided by Waltham Forest Council in partnership with Organiclea, is helping 16 to 25 years explore career paths in horticulture, food retail or processing.

The programme, which includes work tasters, accredited work experience, paid work and business start-up support is designed for young people not in education or a job.

Brandon said: "Hawkwood Nursery is a great place to work and the Food Works programme has helped me find the career I was looking for. One that I really enjoy."

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

Really professional install in my Victorian terrace, they were able to harmonise the design and detailed work with the original features of my house. Whole house fitted, including a new backdoor, in three days.
Excellent work, thanks
Mr Ramirez E17

The fitters were friendly, neat, tidy and efficient. Many people have commented on how good the new windows look. I would happily recommend dolphin to family and friends.

"The team at Dolphin are brilliant, I would recommend them to anyone"

CHECK IT OUT: Dame Angela Watkinson gets her heart checked

Free heart checks

PIONEERING pharmacies are using the latest technology to offer free blood pressure monitoring that also checks for irregular heart rhythms.

Customers can also get a free ECG reading that can be sent off to a cardiologist who will check for irregular heart rhythms. Medics said in north-east London there is an increase of heart related illnesses, particularly in patients over 45 years of age.

An innovative new service helps people to look after their heart by monitoring their heart rhythm and blood pressure in their local pharmacy.

Community pharmacies are detecting early indicators of atrial fibrillation that doctors say is a ticking time bomb that can affect one in four people and can lead to strokes.

Dame Angela Watkinson, MP for Hornchurch and Upminster went to her local Elm Park Pharmacy in Elm Park Avenue to get herself checked.

Dame Angela said: "I urge everyone over 45 years of age to visit a participating pharmacy to get their heart checked.

"It is quick, convenient and does not require undressing."

Farhad Mashadi, a local community pharmacist said: "Patients have been really amazed by how fast they receive information about their heart. We have been able to offer patients advice on risk factors associated with high blood pressure and heart rhythms and help them take better care of their health."

01268 503400CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers' control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers must not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Administration Assistants | £17,970 | London | Full time

This might look like any other admin job, but it's far more important than you'd think. The fact is, we couldn't help protect the UK without a dedicated support team behind us. You might be a school leaver, coming back to work after a break or looking for something steady after having had a full career. Either way, you'll have great organisation, communication and team working skills and you'll show flexibility, initiative and a commitment to the role. We currently have a range of administrative positions across our Corporate Services, Information Management and Facilities teams. To apply visit www.mi5.gov.uk/careers

To work for MI5 you must be a born or naturalised British citizen. You should not discuss your application, other than with your partner or a close family member, providing that they are British. They should also be made aware of the importance of discretion.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
 1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
 2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
 3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "(T)" etc. in the advertisement.
 4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
 5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
 6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
 7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
 8. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
 9. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
 10. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
 11. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
 12. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
 13. All accounts are granted at the discretion of the Company.
 14. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
 15. Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
 16. Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
 17. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
 18. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
 19. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
 20. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
 21. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
Box Numbers
 Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
Holiday & Travel Category
 All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
Data Protection
 The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
 Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
 Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

ESSEX SHOW THEIR METAL

by Brian Jeeves
LV County Championship
Division Two

Essex v Gloucestershire
Day three and four

ESSEX remained in control on the third day of their match with Gloucestershire at Chelmsford.

Essex resumed 201 runs ahead and within sight of a rare LVCC victory in what has otherwise been a frustrating campaign.

Ravi Bopara became the second Essex centurion of the match, reaching the milestone with a towering six.

Nevertheless, Gloucestershire made a breakthrough, removing skipper James Foster for 54, with the home side 440-4. Bopara became the prize wicket of Tom Smith, but not before he had wooed the crowd with 147.

A flurry of wickets saw Essex all-out for 541 and with a healthy lead of 317, Jack Taylor was the pick of the beleaguered Gloucestershire attack with 4-125.

Gloucestershire's frustration continued into their second innings with Chris Dent (24) and William Tavare (1) both back in the pavilion with just 30 on the scoreboard. Alex Gidman and Hamish Marshall steadied the ship before Gidman was bowled by Reece Topley for a gamely 53.

However, when Marshall (43) was snared by Foster off the bowling of Topley,

Gloucestershire's hopes took a turn for the worst with the visitors now 128-4, still 189 runs adrift. With Ian Cockbain (42) and will Gidman (26) in the middle, Gloucestershire finished the day on 194-4 but will need a minor miracle to avoid defeat.

On Wednesday Gloucestershire resumed on 194-4 but Essex soon made the breakthrough. Ian Cockbain was first to depart, snared by Jesse Ryder of the bowling of Ryan Ten Doeschate for 43.

And when Monty Panesar trapped Will Gidman (40) lbw and Ryder knocked over Tom Smith (7), Gloucestershire's faint remaining resistance all but diminished.

After lunch, Essex moved quickly to finish off the visitors' innings. James Taylor (6) the last man out, leaving Gloucestershire on 325 and a lead of eight.

Tom Westley (1) and Nick Browne (9) saw Essex home in just nine balls to secure maximum points and a 10-wicket victory.

Pre season newsbites

By Brian Jeeves

WEST Ham United have been handed another boost ahead of the 2014/15 campaign with promising 16-year-old defender Josh Pask pledging his long-term future to the club.

Pask snubbed offers from London rivals Arsenal as well as a host of other clubs in order to continue his development with the clubs academy.

Hammers supporters already have good cause for optimism with the capture of Senegalese defensive midfielder Cheikhou Kouyate from Belgium champions Anderlecht and exciting Argentinian striker Mauro Zarate from Velez Sarsfield.

Fans of Sky Bet League One club Leyton Orient were disappointed to hear news that effervescent winger Moses Odubajo has joined Championship new boys Brentford for a fee believed to be in the region of one million pounds. Odubajo made 116 appearances for the O's, finding the net sixteen times, this included a thundering effort during the play-off defeat to Rotherham United at Wembley in May.

Meanwhile, Colchester United will be offering young fans the chance to watch games for free at the Weston Homes Community Stadium in 2014/15.

Each paying adult buying a ticket in blocks E5, E6, E7 and E8 will be entitled to bring along four free under 11's to a game. That means supporters will be able to bring up to five people for as little as £16 in advance and for no more than £30 on a matchday! And local football teams, schools or groups can also benefit from the U's deal with the same rules applying. They simply need to ensure an adult in presence for every four kids and the young fans can attend for free! To find out more contact the U's ticket office on ticketing@colchesterunited.net

In Sky Bet League Two, Dagenham & Redbridge manager Wayne Burnett has been busy assembling a squad he believes can challenge for a promotion place. Most recent acquisitions include defensive duo Nathan Green from Tonbridge Angels and former Oxford United man Damian Batt.

Burnett had already moved quickly to snap up Ashley Chambers from Cambridge United, this after the player had impressed during a loan spell at the London Borough of Barking & Dagenham Stadium during the last campaign. And further shrewd business saw the Daggers bring in experienced goalkeeper Mark Cousins from Essex rivals Colchester United.

Southend United manager Phil Brown has been working hard to bring new blood to Roots Hall with Myles Weston arriving from League One Gillingham. Brown will be buoyed further by the capture of Southampton striker Lee Barnard after a loan spell. Barnard previously enjoyed a successful stint by the seaside, hitting 37 goals in 75 matches between 2008 and 2010. Though his return to Roots Hall has thus far yielded only one goal, the prospect of a full pre-season will hopefully the Romford born front man back to his best.

Barnard told the Shrimpers official website: "It was nice to have some time off, but if I'm honest I really can't wait to get started again. I didn't play much during last season, so I've kept working hard throughout the summer.

And he added: "It's a fresh start for me in many ways because I'll be able to get a full pre-season under my belt in preparation for the new season which I didn't have last time around. "I'm really pleased to be back the club and playing under Phil Brown. I was thankful to him and the chairman for bringing me back to Roots Hall.

Conference South outfit Concord Rangers have announced a pre-season date with local rivals Canvey Island. The match, to be staged at the Aspect Arena on Saturday July 26, 3pm, will be used to create awareness and funds for local charities The Danny Green Fund and The Indee Rose Trust. In the past both clubs have used pre-season fixtures to support the organizations, once again a big crowd is expected.

Successful weekend after rain stops first XI game

BILLERICAY first XI had their match away at Horndon On The Hill abandoned before the end of the first innings, which leaves Billericay in sixth place, 27 points off the promotion places.

The rest of the club had a successful weekend despite the weather. The second XI are now storming away at the top of their league after a sixth win from the opening eight games.

Stanford Le Hope struggled in the cloudy conditions as Billericay dominated with the ball taking regular wickets through the Stanford Le Hope innings. A lone 51 from Jordan Dodd brought respectability to the score but 129 all out was below par against the in-form home side. Jack Granby picked up four wickets, while Robert Rayner and John Walter took three and two wickets respectively.

Billericay's batsmen did also find it difficult with rain in the air but they managed to chase down the total by three wickets with opener Chris Horton top scoring with 49.

Billericay already hold a mammoth 27-point lead at the top with promotion the minimum expected from here. The 3s were posed tough opposition in the form of Hornchurch as the hosts battled their way to 170-9 with Billericay's bowlers sharing about the wickets in the opening innings.

In reply, Billericay made the game comfortable once they got settled as Steve Ash took control of the match with his 76 not out as the away side won by seven wickets.

Southend stages international festival

An ICC official presents Mike Smith and Neil Harding from the Southend Cricket Festival committee a plaque to mark Garon Park as an official ICC international venue

Brian Jeeves at Garon Park, Southend.

SOUTHEND cricket enthusiasts were treated to some exciting action as the Pepsi ICC Europe Division Two T/20 Championship came to Garon Park last week.

Despite good weather and free admission, attendances were small on both days play. Nevertheless, those who attended witness some fascinating encounters.

On Tuesday, Gibraltar posted a score of 104 in the opening game, with Coram top scoring with 33. However, opponents Austria successfully chased down the target with Naeem hitting a quick-fire 47 to secure a six-wicket victory. Austria's Khan was the pick of the bowlers on show, with impressive figures of 3-5 from his four overs.

This was followed by a dramatic encounter as the Gibraltarians took on Germany. The German's seemed to have the upper hand after scoring 133-6 from their 20 overs, with Pillai hitting 42. But an impressive innings of 34 from Clarke along with an unbeaten knock of 29 from Stagno saw a delighted Gibraltar home by six wickets.

Thursday's opening game saw the Isle of Man dismissed by Austria for just 80 runs, with Kniveton (23) and Stokoe (20) accountable for more than half of their total. The Austrians made short work of the chase with Asif (20) and an excellent 52 from Arachching securing a comfortable ten wicket victory.

The Isle of Man were also involved in the festival's final game, as Littlejohn's 46 helped them to an impressive total of 134-7. However, an unbeaten 74 from Stagno and 59 from Bacarese steered Gibraltar to a seven wicket win.

Southend Cricket Festival Chairman Baiju was extremely upbeat about the event, telling Yellow Sport: "The ICC has been a great success the teams enjoyed the facilities and hospitality, with some good competitive cricket played. And Solanki added "This shows we here at Southend can put on a good show, which puts us in a great position to play top class cricket at Garon Park.

Local cricket fans are reminded that Garon Park will be staging a further two international fixtures in late August. The matches will see England Women's Academy take on South Africa Women, these games are to be held on Friday 29 (2pm) and Saturday 30 (11am). Once again admission is free.
